Proposal: Graduation (Commencement) Ceremony

NKU currently holds commencement/graduation ceremonies at the end of fall semester (December) and the end of spring semester (May). NOTE: Participating in these ceremonies does not mean that one has graduated.

In order to participate in the December commencement ceremony, an undergraduate student must have either:

1. Completed all classes required for the degree.
   - OR -
2. Be enrolled that fall in all classes needed to complete the degree.

In order to participate in the May commencement ceremony, an undergraduate student must have either:

1. Completed all classes required for the degree.
   - OR -
2. Be enrolled that spring in all classes needed to complete the degree.

Exceptions to this policy can be approved only by the Vice Provost upon recommendation of the dean of the college that houses the student’s major.
